Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(e) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Willson.

See the appropriate paragraph of paragraph of the 9/3/03 Office action for the teachings of Willson.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 10/16/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's remarks were convincing for all of the references except Willson .

Applicant's state Willson fails to teach the claimed step of desorbing an absorbate while measuring the radiation emitted from the surface during the desorption.

The specification of this application teaches on page 7 lines 1+ the claimed solids can be clays, zeolites and plastics that are indistinguishable from the support taught by Willson in column 2 lines 14+. Additionally, the specification teaches in column 8 lines 26+ the claimed "absorbate" includes other interaction where the sample is not actually absorbed.

The Office has read the claimed solid properly on the support taught by Willson as they are identical. Further, the Office has read the catalytic interaction on the claimed "desorbing adsorbed absorbate" based upon Applicant's definition of these terms in the specification.

The Office regrets a typographical error in the 9/3/03 Office action where Willson was erroneously rejected under 35 USC 102(b). Willson qualifies as prior art under 35 USC 102(e) as rejected above. The actual art rejection has not been changed, only the statute under which the rejection was made. It is believed that no new burden has been placed upon Applicant by this correction.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
